Finding Support for HCV

October 9, 2017

Whether you're looking for a place to get tested for HCV or need help paying for care and treatment, HepMag.com is the go-to source for educational and social support for people living with hepatitis. Check out these sections of the website:

The Hep Service Directory

hepmag.com/directory

A comprehensive and searchable guide to health care and services that will help you find everything from an HCV testing center to a drug treatment program in your area.

Hep Forums

forums.hepmag.com

A round-the-clock discussion area for people concerned about hepatitis and liver disease.

Hep Basics

hepmag.com/basics

General information about hepatitis testing, transmission, prevention and treatment.

Paying for Hep C Treatment

hepmag.com/paying-for-treatment

A list of copay programs, patient assistant programs (PAPs) and patient advocacy organizations that have helped countless people access care and obtain affordable HCV treatment.

© 2026 Smart + Strong All Rights Reserved.