

Gemma's Treatment Diary

February 12, 2013 By Gemma Pepe

---

Gemma is the Campaigns and Events Manager at The Hepatitis C Trust. She will be periodically sharing her treatment experience of the phase III AbbVie trial. It is important to remember that many patients have quite different experiences with treatment. The Hepatitis C Trust aims only to offer impartial information and does not necessarily endorse the opinions held by one patient. However, we wish Gemma all the best on her journey and feel that the diary may be helpful for others looking for an insight into the treatment journey.
