Hepatitis Awareness Month

May 1, 2015 By Lucinda K. Porter RN

May is Hepatitis Awareness Month, and this is the fourth time we've observed it. In honor of this event, I will post to this blog daily, suggesting ways we can help raise awareness about issues surrounding hepatitis C.

Here's my first tip:

Visit the CDC's Know More Hepatitis website and download a graphic for your facebook page, Twitter, or website. Here are examples of how I've used them:
